LUXURY GOODS & CRYPTOCURRENCY

A New World of Commerce

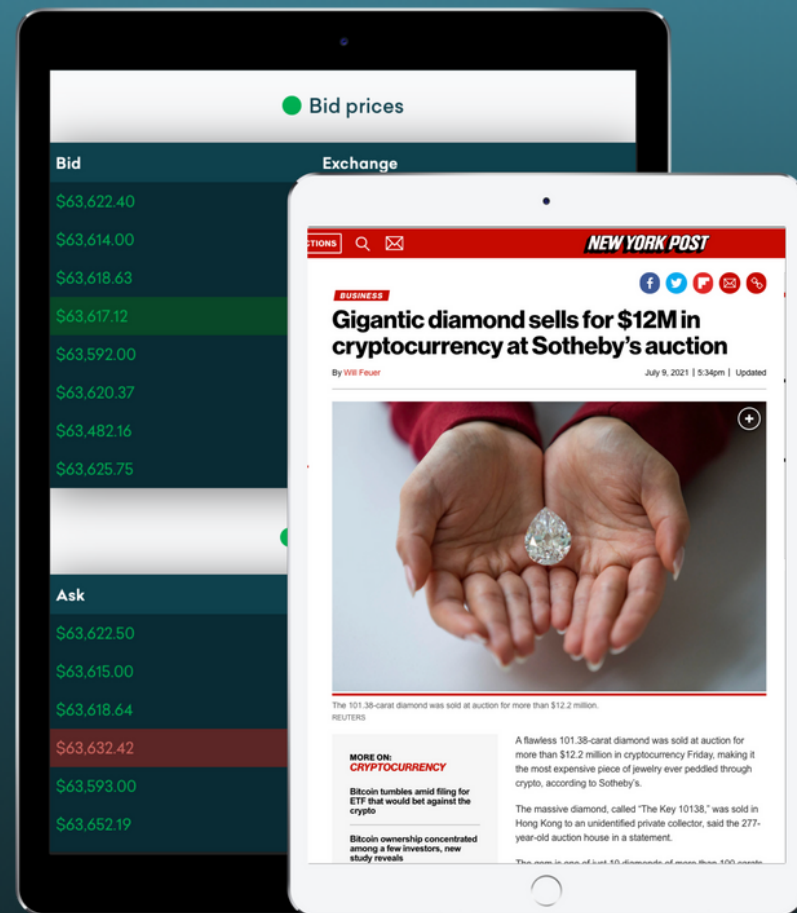

→ The luxury good industry has started to capitalise on the estimated $2trillion dollar cryptocurrency market.

Will you? Crypto is a revolutionary game changer when buying and selling high-end goods.

Bitcashier helps you facilitate any buyer/seller transactions while keeping each payment risk-free and without additional fee.

The future is now.

Sotheby's

A flawless 101 carat diamond was sold at auction for more than $12.2 million in cryptocurrency.
The most expensive piece of jewellery ever sold through crypto, according to Sotheby's.

Many luxury brands are now accepting crypto as payment for goods and services.

Bitcashier facilitates transactions of any size.

Why sell your luxury goods with Bitcashier?

At Bitcashier we believe that crypto transactions are the safest and cheapest way to monetise high-end goods. We offer safe and easy transaction solutions.

Risk free

We use the highest possible encryption

End-to-end encryption from the Bitcoin wallet to the cash transfer for the seller. The transaction is completely safe.

No fee

Avoid expensive fees from card companies

You can convert all collected coins into other assets and send them to a personal bank account or crypto wallet.

No cancelation

The buyer cannot cancel the deal at the last minute.

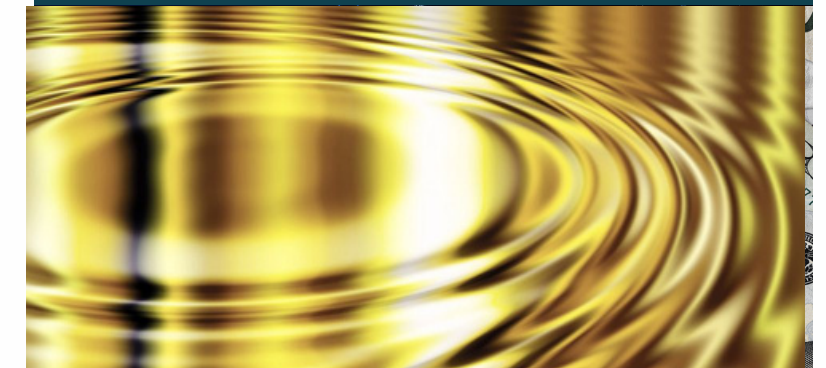

Once the transaction has gone through the deal is 'done' there is no opportunity for the buyer to walk away and 'cancel' the deal.

Flexibility

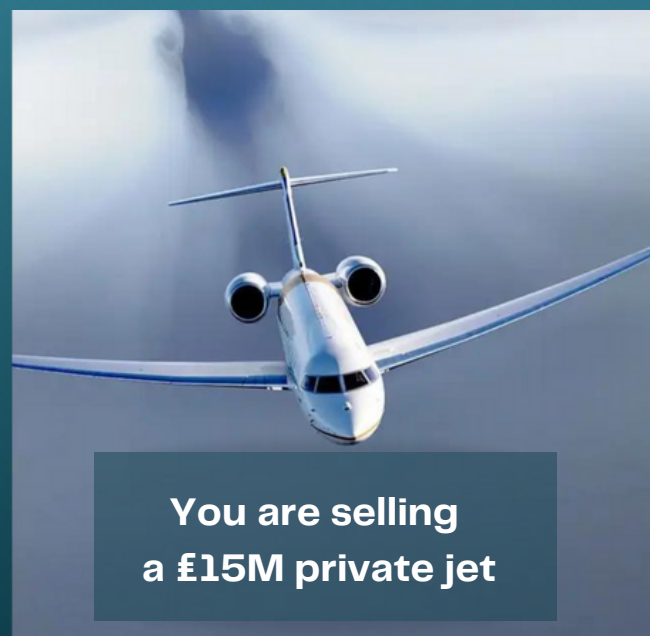

Transactions for full or part-value

Bitcashier can accommodate any transaction amount that you and your client agree upon.

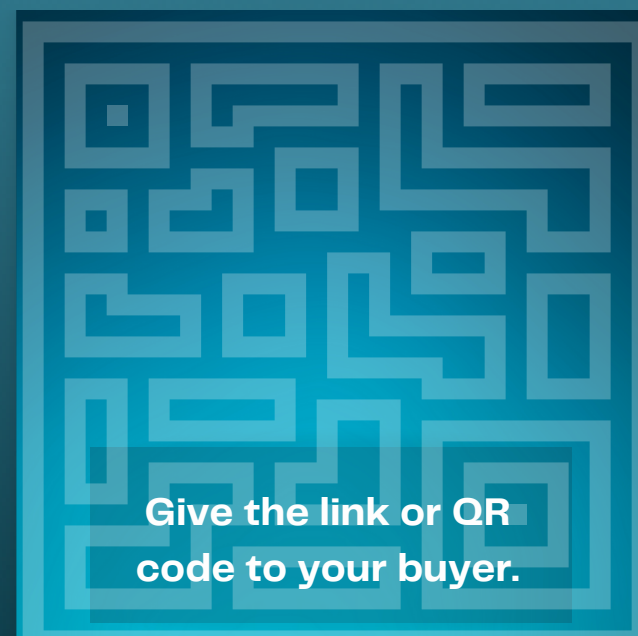

Easy steps to selling your high-value goods

Example selling a £15M private jet.

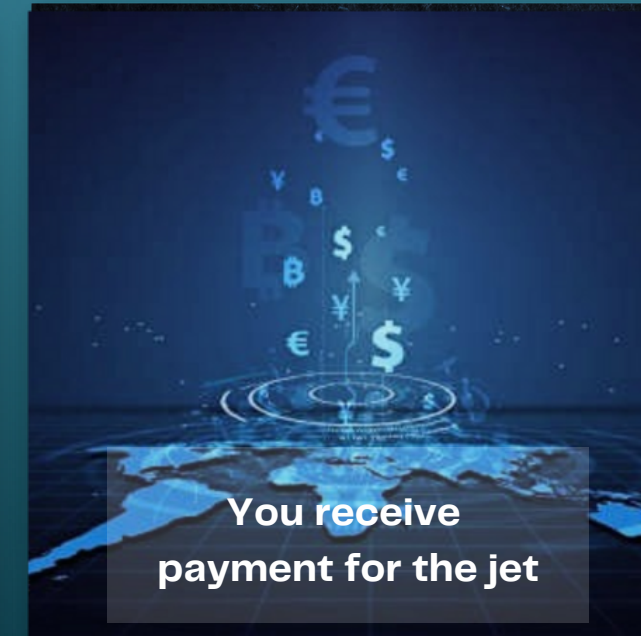

You have a buyer for your jet,
who wants to pay with cryptocurrency.
You create an invoice on the Bitcashier platform. A link and a QR code are generated.

Your customer is presented with a list of cryptocurrencies they can use to pay for the private jet.

Bitcashier calculates the price of the yacht in the chosen cryptocurrency and provides a payment option for the buyer at a real-time rate. The buyer sends cryptocurrency.

Get paid in your chosen currency directly to your bank account.
